 שַׁבַּת וַיִּנְפַשׁ:

11. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 12. When you take the census of the people of Israel according to their number, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul to Hashem, when you count them; that there should be no plague among them, when you count them. 13. This they shall give, every one who passes among those who are counted, half a shekel according to the shekel of the sanctuary; a shekel is twenty gerahs; a half shekel shall be the offering of Hashem. 14. Every one who passes among those who are counted, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering to Hashem. 15. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering to Hashem, to make an atonement for your souls. 16. And you shall take the atonement money of the people of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the Tent of Meeting; that it may be a memorial to the people of Israel before Hashem, to make an atonement for your souls. 17. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 18. You shall also make a basin of bronze, and its pedestal also of bronze, to wash with; and you shall put it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and you shall put water in it. 19. For Aaron and his sons shall wash there their hands and their feet; 20. When they go into the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire to Hashem; 21. So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not; and it shall be a statute forever to them, to him and to his seed throughout their generations. 22. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 23. Take you also to you the best spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, 24. And of cassia five hundred shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive a hin; 25. And you shall make it an oil of holy ointment, an ointment compound according to the art of the apothecary; it shall be a holy anointing oil. 26. And you shall anoint the Tent of Meeting with it, and the ark of the Testimony, 27. And the table and all its utensils, and the lampstand and its utensils, and the altar of incense, 28. And the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin and its pedestal. 29. And you shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy; whatever touches them shall be holy. 30. And you shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and consecrate them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. 31. And you shall speak to the people of Israel, saying, This shall be a holy anointing oil to me throughout your generations. 32. Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, nor shall you make any other like it, after its composition; it is holy, and it shall be holy to you. 33. Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it upon a stranger, shall be cut off from his people. 34. And Hashem said to Moses, Take to you sweet spices, storax, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense; of each shall there be a like weight; 35. And you shall make it a perfume, a confection according to the art of the apothecary, mixed together, pure and holy; 36. And you shall beat some of it very small, and put of it before the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you; it shall be to you most holy. 37. And as for the perfume which you shall make, you shall not make for yourselves according to its composition; it shall be to you holy for Hashem. 38. Whoever shall make it like that, to partake of its scent, shall be cut off from his people.

Chapter 31

1. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 2. See, I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah; 3. And I have filled him with the spirit of Elohim, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship, 4. To devise skilful works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, 5. And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all kinds of workmanship. 6. And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all who are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you; 7. The Tent of Meeting, and the ark of the Testimony, and the covering that is on it, and all the furniture of the Tent, 8. And the table and its furniture, and the pure lampstand with all its furniture, and the altar of incense, 9. And the altar of burnt offering with all its furniture, and the basin and its pedestal, 10. And the cloths of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office, 11. And the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy place; according to all that I have commanded you shall they do. 12. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 13. Speak you also to the people of Israel, saying, Truly my sabbaths you shall keep; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am Hashem that does sanctify you. 14. You shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you; every one who defiles it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work in it, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. 15. Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to Hashem; whoever does any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death. 16. Therefore the people of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for an everlasting covenant. 17. It is a sign between me and the people of Israel forever; for in six days Hashem made heaven and earth, and Who on the seventh day rested, and was refreshed.

18. And the Eternal gave to Moses, after talking with him upon Mount Sinai, two tablets of Testimony, tablets of stone, written by the finger of Elohim.

Chapter 32

1. And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mount, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, Arise, make us gods, which shall go before us; and as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what became of him. 2. And Aaron said to them, Take off the golden ear rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me. 3. And all the people took off the golden ear rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. 4. And he received them from their hand, and fashioned with a graving tool a molten calf; and they said, These are your gods, O Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt. 5. And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, Tomorrow is a feast to Hashem. 6. And they rose up early on the next day, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play. 7. And Hashem said to Moses, Go down; for your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves; 8. They have turned aside quickly from the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, These are your gods, O Israel, which have brought you out of the land of Egypt. 9. And Hashem said to Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiff-necked people; 10. Now therefore let me alone, that my anger may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation. 11. And Moses pleaded with Hashem his Elohim, and said, Hashem, why does your anger burn hot against your people, whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand? 12. Therefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For an evil intent did he brought them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from your fierce anger, and repent of this evil against your people. 13. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever. 14. And Hashem repented of the evil which he thought to do to his people. 15. And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand; the tablets were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written. 16. And the tablets were the work of Elohim, and the writing was the writing of Elohim, engraved upon the tablets. 17. And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said to Moses, There is a sound like war in the camp. 18. And he said, It is not the voice of those who shout for mastery, nor is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the sound of those who sing do I hear. 19. And it came to pass, as soon as he came near to the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing; and Moses' anger burned hot, and he threw the tablets from his hands, and broke them beneath the mount. 20. And he took the calf which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and scattered it upon the water, and made the people of Israel drink of it. 21. And Moses said to Aaron, What did this people do to you, that you have brought so great a sin upon them? 22. And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord burn hot; you know the people, that they are set on evil. 23. For they said to me, Make us gods, which shall go before us; and as for this Moses, the man who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what became of him. 24. And I said to them, Whoever has any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me; then I casted it into the fire, and there came out this calf. 25. And when Moses saw that the people were naked; for Aaron had made them naked to their shame among their enemies; 26. Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on Hashem's side? let him come to me. And all the Levites gathered themselves together to him. 27. And he said to them, Thus said Hashem Elohim of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor. 28. And the Levites did according to the word of Moses; and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. 29. For Moses had said, Consecrate yourselves today to Hashem, every man against his son, and against his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day. 30. And it came to pass on the next day, that Moses said to the people, You have sinned a great sin; and now I will go up to Hashem; perhaps I shall make an atonement for your sin. 31. And Moses returned to Hashem, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made them gods of gold. 32. Yet now, if you will forgive their sin; and if not, blot me, I beg you, from your book which you have written. 33. And Hashem said to Moses, Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot from my book. 34. Therefore now go, lead the people to the place about which I have spoken to you; behold, my Angel shall go before you; nevertheless in the day when I punish I will punish their sin upon them. 35. And Hashem plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

Chapter 33

1. And Hashem said to Moses, Depart, and go up, you and the people whom you have brought out of the land of Egypt, to the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, To your seed will I give it; 2. And I will send an angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; 3. To a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in the midst of you; for you are a stiff-necked people; lest I consume you in the way. 4. And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned; and no man put on him his ornaments. 5. For Hashem had said to Moses, Say to the people of Israel, You are a stiff-necked people; I will come up into the midst of you in a moment, and consume you; therefore take off your ornaments from you, that I may know what to do to you. 6. And the people of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb. 7. And Moses took the Tent, and pitched it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and called it the Tent of Meeting. And it came to pass, that every one who sought Hashem went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. 8. And it came to pass, when Moses went out to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the Tent. 9. And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the Tent, the pillar of cloud descended, and stood at the door of the Tent, and Hashem talked with Moses. 10. And all the people saw the pillar of cloudy stand at the Tent door; and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent door. 11. And Hashem spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. And he turned again into the camp; but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not from the Tent.

12. And Moses said to Hashem, See, you say to me, Bring up this people; and you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, I know you by name, and you have also found grace in my sight. 13. Now therefore, I beg you, if I have found grace in your sight, show me now your way, that I may know you, that I may find grace in your sight; and consider that this nation is your people. 14. And the Eternal said, My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest. 15. And he said to him, If your presence does not go with me, carry us not from here. 16. For where shall it be known here that I and your people have found grace in your sight? Is it not in that you go with us that we are distinct, I and your people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth?

17. And Hashem said to Moses, I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found grace in my sight, and I know you by name. 18. And he said, I beg you, show me your glory. 19. And the Eternal said, I will make all my goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of Hashem before you; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy. 20. And the Eternal said, You can not see my face; for no man shall see me and live. 21. And Hashem said, Behold, there is a place by me, and you shall stand upon a rock; 22. And it shall come to pass, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand while I pass by; 23. And I will take away my hand, and you shall see my back; but my face shall not be seen.

1. And Hashem said to Moses, Cut two tablets of stone like the first; and I will write upon these tablets the words that were in the first tablets, which you broke. 2. And be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me in the top of the mount. 3. And no man shall come up with you, nor let any man be seen throughout all the mount; nor let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount. 4. And he cut two tablets of stone like to the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to Mount Sinai, as Hashem had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone. 5. And Hashem descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of Hashem. 6. And Hashem passed by before him, and proclaimed, Hashem, Hashem Elohim, merciful and gracious, long suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth, 7. Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, to the third and to the fourth generation. 8. And Moses made haste, and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshipped. 9. And he said, If now I have found grace in your sight, O Hashem, let my Hashem, I beseech you, go among us; for it is a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance.

10. And the Eternal said, Behold, I make a covenant; before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been done in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among you shall see the work of Hashem; for it is an awesome thing that I will do with you. 11. Observe what I command you this day; behold, I drive out before you the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite. 12. Take heed to yourself, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you go, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you; 13. But you shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their Asherim. 14. For you shall worship no other god; for Hashem, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous Elohim; 15. Lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and they go to play the harlot after their gods, and sacrifice to their gods, and one calls you, and you eat of his sacrifice; 16. And you take from their daughters to your sons, and their daughters go to play the harlot after their gods, and make your sons go to play the harlot after their gods. 17. You shall make for yourself no molten gods. 18. The Feast of Unleavened Bread shall you keep. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, in the time of the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt. 19. All that opens the matrix is mine; and every firstling among your cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male. 20. But the firstling of an ass you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you redeem him not, then shall you break his neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. And none shall appear before me empty. 21. Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest; in plowing and in harvest you shall rest. 22. And you shall observe the Feast of Weeks, of the first fruits of wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the year's end. 23. Thrice in the year shall all your males appear before Hashem Elohim, the Elohim of Israel. 24. For I will cast out the nations before you, and enlarge your borders; nor shall any man desire your land, when you shall go up to appear before Hashem your Elohim thrice in the year. 25. You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; nor shall the sacrifice of the Feast of the Passover be left to the morning. 26. The first of the first fruits of your land you shall bring to the house of Hashem your Elohim. You shall not boil a kid in his mother's milk.

27. And Hashem said to Moses, Write these words; for according to these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel. 28. And he was there with Hashem forty days and forty nights; he did neither eat bread, nor drink water. And he wrote upon the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments. 29. And it came to pass, when Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of Testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses knew not that the skin of his face shone while the Eternal talked with him. 30. And when Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come closer to him. 31. And Moses called to them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned to him; and Moses talked with them. 32. And afterward all the people of Israel came near; and he gave them in commandment all that Hashem had spoken with him in Mount Sinai. 33. And when Moses had finished speaking with them, he put a veil on his face. 34. But when Moses went in before Hashem to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out. And he came out, and spoke to the people of Israel that which he was commanded. 35.

And the people of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone; and Moses put the veil upon his face again, until he went in to speak with the Eternal.
