2. And Elohim spoke to Moses, and said to him, I am Hashem; 3. And I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, by the name of Elohim Almighty, but by my name Hashem was I not known to them. 4. And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their sojourning, in which they sojourned. 5. And I have also heard the groaning of the people of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in slavery; and I have remembered my covenant. 6. Therefore say to the people of Israel, I am Hashem, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you from their slavery, and I will redeem you with a outstretched arm, and with great judgments; 7. And I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you an Eternal One; and you shall know that I am Hashem your Eternal One, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. 8. And I will bring you in to the land, concerning which I swore to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for a heritage; I am Hashem. 9. And Moses spoke so to the people of Israel; but they listened not to Moses because of their anguished spirit, and because of the cruel slavery. 10. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 11. Go, speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the people of Israel go out of his land. 12. And Moses spoke before the Hashem, saying, Behold, the people of Israel have not listened to me; how then shall Pharaoh hear me, who am of uncircumcised lips? 13. And Hashem spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a charge to the people of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

29. That Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, I am Hashem; speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say to you. 30. And Moses said before Hashem, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how shall Pharaoh listen to me?

Chapter 7

1. And Hashem said to Moses, See, I have made you a god to Pharaoh; and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. 2. You shall speak all that I command you; and Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he send the people of Israel out of his land. 3. And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. 4. But Pharaoh shall not listen to you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth my armies, and my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. 5. And the Egyptians shall know that I am Hashem, when I stretch forth my hand upon Egypt, and bring out the people of Israel from among them. 6. And Moses and Aaron did as Hashem commanded them, so did they. 7. And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

8. And Hashem spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 9. When Pharaoh shall speak to you, saying, Show a miracle; then you shall say to Aaron, Take your rod, and throw it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent. 10. And Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh, and they did as Hashem had commanded; and Aaron threw down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent. 11. Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers; now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments. 12. For they threw down every man his rod, and they became serpents; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. 13. And he hardened Pharaoh's heart, that he listened not to them; as Hashem had said. 14. And Hashem said to Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened, he refuses to let the people go. 15. Go to Pharaoh in the morning; lo, he goes out to the water; and you shall stand by the river's brink until he comes; and the rod which was turned to a serpent shall you take in your hand. 16. And you shall say to him, Hashem Elohim of the Hebrews has sent me to you, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness; and, behold, till now you would not hear. 17. Thus said Hashem, In this you shall know that I am Hashem; behold, I will strike with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. 18. And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink water of the river. 19. And Hashem spoke to Moses, Say to Aaron, Take your rod, and stretch out your hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in utensils of wood, and in utensils of stone. 20. And Moses and Aaron did so, as Hashem commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. 21. And the fish that were in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt. 22. And the magicians of Egypt did likewise with their enchantments; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, nor did he listen to them; as Hashem had said. 23. And Pharaoh turned and went to his house, nor did he set his heart to this. 24. And all the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink; for they could not drink of the water of the river. 25. And seven days were completed, after that Hashem had struck the river. 26. And Hashem spoke to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus said Hashem, Let my people go, that they may serve me. 27. And if you refuse to let them go, behold, I will plague all your borders with frogs; 28. And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bed chamber, and upon your bed, and into the house of your servants, and upon your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs; 29. And the frogs shall come up both on you, and upon your people, and upon all your servants.

Chapter 8

1. And Hashem spoke to Moses, Say to Aaron, Stretch forth your hand with your rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt. 2. And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. 3. And the magicians did likewise with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt. 4. Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Entreat Hashem, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice to Hashem. 5. And Moses said to Pharaoh, Command me when shall I entreat for you, and for your servants, and for your people, to destroy the frogs from you and your houses, that they may remain in the river only. 6. And he said, Tomorrow. And he said, Be it according to your word; that you may know that there is no one like Hashem our Elohim.

7. And the frogs shall depart from you, from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people; they shall remain in the river only. 8. And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh; and Moses cried to Hashem because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh. 9. And Hashem did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died in the houses, in the villages, and in the fields. 10. And they gathered them together upon heaps; and the land stank. 11. But when Pharaoh saw that there was respite, he hardened his heart, and listened not to them; as Hashem had said. 12. And Hashem said to Moses, Say to Aaron, Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt. 13. And they did so; for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and struck the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man, and in beast; all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. 14. And the magicians did likewise with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not; so there were lice upon man, and upon beast. 15. Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, This is the finger of Elohim; and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he listened not to them; as Hashem had said. 16. And Hashem said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he comes forth to the water; and say to him, Thus said Hashem, Let my people go, that they may serve me. 17. Else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon you, and upon your servants, and upon your people, and into your houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground on which they are. 18. And I will set apart in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end that you may know that I am Hashem in the midst of the earth.

19. And I will put a division between my people and your people; tomorrow shall this sign be. 20. And Hashem did so; and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt; the land was devastated because of the swarm of flies. 21. And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go, sacrifice to your Elohim in the land. 22. And Moses said, It is not proper to do so; for we shall sacrifice to Hashem our Elohim what is abomination for the Egyptians. Shall we sacrifice what is abomination for the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us? 23. We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Hashem our Elohim, as he shall command us. 24. And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to Hashem your Elohim in the wilderness; only you shall not go very far away; entreat for me. 25. And Moses said, Behold, I go out from you, and I will entreat Hashem that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to Hashem. 26. And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and entreated Hashem. 27. And Hashem did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one. 28. And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

Chapter 9

1. Then Hashem said to Moses, Go to Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus said Hashem Elohim of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. 2. For if you refuse to let them go, and will hold them still, 3. Behold, the hand of Hashem is upon your cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the oxen, and upon the sheep; there shall be a very grievous plague. 4. And Hashem shall separate between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt; and nothing shall die of all that is the children's of Israel. 5. And Hashem appointed a set time, saying, Tomorrow Hashem shall do this thing in the land. 6. And Hashem did that thing in the morning, and all the cattle of Egypt died; but of the cattle of the people of Israel died not one. 7. And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the people of Israel dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go. 8. And Hashem said to Moses and to Aaron, Take handfuls of ashes from the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh. 9. And it shall become fine dust in all the land of Egypt, and boils shall break out with sores upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt. 10. And they took ashes from the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became boils breaking out with sores upon man, and upon beast. 11. And the magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for boils were on the magicians, and on all the Egyptians. 12. And Hashem hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he listened not to them; as Hashem had spoken to Moses. 13. And Hashem said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus said Hashem Elohim of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me. 14. For I will at this time send all my plagues upon your heart, and upon your servants, and upon your people; that you may know that there is no one like me in all the earth. 15. For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may strike you and your people with pestilence; and you shall be cut off from the earth. 16. And in very deed for this cause have I raised you up, to show in you my power; and that my name may be proclaimed throughout all the earth.

17. If you still exalt yourself against my people, that you will not let them go, 18. Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause to rain a very severe hail, such as has not been in Egypt since its founding until now. 19. Send therefore now, and gather your cattle, and all that you have in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die. 20. He who feared the word of Hashem among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses; 21. And he who regarded not the word of Hashem left his servants and his cattle in the field. 22. And Hashem said to Moses, Stretch out your hand toward heaven, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt. 23. And Moses stretched out his rod toward heaven; and Hashem sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and Hashem rained hail upon the land of Egypt. 24. So there was hail, and fire mixed with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. 25. And the hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. 26. Only in the land of Goshen, where the people of Israel were, was there no hail. 27. And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, I have sinned this time; Hashem is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. 28. Entreat Hashem, for it is enough, that there be no more mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer. 29. And Moses said to him, As soon as I am gone from the city, I will spread out my hands to Hashem; and the thunder shall cease, nor shall there be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is Hashem's. 30. But as for you and your servants, I know that you still do not fear Hashem Elohim. 31. And the flax and the barley were ruined; for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was bud. 32. But the wheat and the spelt were not ruined; for they were late ripening. 33. And Moses went out from the city, from Pharaoh, and spread out his hands to Hashem; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was no longer poured upon the earth. 34. And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. 35. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, nor would he let the people of Israel go; as Hashem had spoken by Moses.
