1. And Hashem said to Moses, Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them, There shall be none defiled for the dead among his people; 2. But for his kin, who is near to him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother, 3. And for his sister a virgin, who is near to him, which has had no husband; for her may he be defiled. 4. But he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to defile himself. 5. They shall not make bald any part of their head, nor shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any gashes in their flesh. 6. They shall be holy to their Elohim, and not profane the name of their Elohim; for the offerings of Hashem made by fire, and the bread of their Elohim, they do offer; therefore they shall be holy. 7. They shall not take a wife who is a harlot, or defiled; nor shall they take a woman put away from her husband; for he is holy to his Elohim. 8. You shall sanctify him therefore; for he offers the bread of your Elohim; he shall be holy to you; for I Hashem, which sanctify you, am holy. 9. And the daughter of any priest, if she defiles herself by playing the harlot, she defiles her father; she shall be burned with fire. 10. And he who is the high priest among his brothers, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and who is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor tear his clothes; 11. Neither shall he go to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother; 12. Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his Elohim; for the crown of the anointing oil of his Elohim is upon him; I am Hashem. 13. And he shall take a wife in her virginity. 14. A widow, or a divorced woman, or defiled, or a harlot, these shall he not take; but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife. 15. Neither shall he defile his seed among his people; for I Hashem do sanctify him.

 אֲנִי יְהוָה מְקַדְּשָׁם:

16. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 17. Speak to Aaron, saying, Whoever he is of your seed in their generations who has any blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his Elohim. 18. For whichever man he is who has a blemish, he shall not approach; a blind man, or a lame, or he who has a flat nose, or any thing superfluous, 19. Or a man who is broken footed, or broken handed, 20. Or crook backed, or a dwarf, or who has a blemish in his eye, or is scurvy, or scabbed, or has his stones broken; 21. No man, of the seed of Aaron the priest, who has a blemish shall come close to offer the offerings of Hashem made by fire; he has a blemish; he shall not come near to offer the bread of his Elohim. 22. He shall eat the bread of his Elohim, both of the most holy, and of the holy. 23. Only he shall not go in to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a blemish; that he profane not my sanctuaries; for I Hashem do sanctify them. 24.

And Moses told it to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the people of Israel.

Chapter 22

1. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 2. Speak to Aaron and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the people of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name in those things which they hallow to me; I am Hashem. 3. Say to them, Whoever he is of all your seed among your generations, who goes to the holy things, which the people of Israel hallow to Hashem, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence; I am Hashem. 4. Whoever, of the seed of Aaron, is a leper, or has a discharge; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he is clean. And whoever touches any thing that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed issues from him; 5. Or whoever touches any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has; 6. The soul who has touched any such shall be unclean until evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he washes his flesh with water. 7. And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterwards eat of the holy things; because it is his food. 8. That which dies of itself, or is torn by beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself with it; I am Hashem. 9. They shall therefore keep my ordinance, lest they bear sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it; I Hashem do sanctify them. 10. There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing; a sojourner of the priest, or a hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. 11. But if the priest buys any soul with his money, he shall eat of it, and he who is born in his house; they shall eat of his bread. 12. If the priest's daughter also is married to a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. 13. But if the priest's daughter is a widow, or divorced, and has no child, and has returned to her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's bread; but there shall no stranger eat it. 14. And if a man eats of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put its fifth part, and shall give it to the priest with the holy thing. 15. And they shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, which they offer to Hashem; 16. Or allow them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things; for I Hashem do sanctify them.

 יְהוָה:

17. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 18. Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the people of Israel, and say to them, Whoever he is, of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his offering for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer to Hashem for a burnt offering; 19. You shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the oxen, of the sheep, or of the goats. 20. But whatever has a blemish, that shall you not offer; for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21. And whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to Hashem to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in oxen or sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish in it. 22. Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a growth, or scurvy, or scabbed, you shall not offer these to Hashem, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar to Hashem. 23. Either a bull or a lamb that has any thing superfluous or lacking in its parts, that may you offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. 24. You shall not offer to Hashem that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; nor shall you make any offering of it in your land. 25. Neither from a stranger's hand shall you offer the bread of your Elohim of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes are in them; they shall not be accepted for you. 26. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 27. When a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, is born, then it shall be seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day on it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire to Hashem. 28. And whether it is a cow or an ewe, you shall not kill it and her young both in one day. 29. And when you will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Hashem, offer it by your own will. 30. On the same day it shall be eaten up; you shall leave none of it until the next day; I am Hashem. 31. Therefore shall you keep my commandments, and do them; I am Hashem. 32. Neither shall you profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the people of Israel; I am Hashem who hallows you, 33. Who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your Elohim; I am Hashem.

1. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 2. Speak to the people of Israel, and say to them, The feasts of Hashem, which you shall proclaim to be holy gatherings, these are my feasts. 3. Six days shall work be done; but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy gathering; you shall do no work in it; it is the sabbath of Hashem in all your dwellings. 4. These are the feasts of Hashem, holy gatherings, which you shall proclaim in their seasons. 5. In the fourteenth day of the first month at evening is Hashem's Passover. 6. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the Feast of Unleavened Bread to Hashem; seven days you must eat unleavened bread. 7. In the first day you shall have a holy gathering; you shall do no labor in it. 8. But you shall offer an offering made by fire to Hashem seven days; in the seventh day is a holy gathering; you shall do no labor in it. 9. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 10. Speak to the people of Israel, and say to them, When you come to the land which I give to you, and shall reap its harvest, then you shall bring a sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest; 11. And he shall wave the sheaf before Hashem, to be accepted for you; on the next day after the sabbath the priest shall wave it. 12. And you shall offer that day when you wave the sheaf a male lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering to Hashem. 13. And the meal offering of it shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mixed with oil, an offering made by fire to Hashem for a sweet savor; and the drink offering of it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. 14. And you shall eat nor bread, nor parched grain, nor green ears, until the same day that you have brought an offering to your Elohim; it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. 15. And you shall count from the next day after the sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete; 16. To the next day after the seventh sabbath shall you count fifty days; and you shall offer a new meal offering to Hashem. 17. You shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals; they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the first fruits to Hashem. 18. And you shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bull, and two rams; they shall be for a burnt offering to Hashem, with their meal offering, and their drink offerings, an offering made by fire, of sweet savor to Hashem. 19. Then you shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a sin offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace offerings. 20. And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering before Hashem with the two lambs; they shall be holy to Hashem for the priest. 21. And you shall proclaim on the same day, that it may be a holy gathering to you; you shall do no labor in it; it shall be a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations. 22. And when you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not make clean riddance up to the corners of your field when you reap, nor shall you gather any gleanings of your harvest; you shall leave them to the poor, and to the stranger; I am Hashem your Elohim.

1. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 2. Command the people of Israel, that they bring to you pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually. 3. Inside the veil of the Testimony, in the Tent of Meeting, shall Aaron order it from the evening to the morning before Hashem continually; it shall be a statute forever in your generations. 4. He shall order the lamps upon the pure lampstands before Hashem continually. 5. And you shall take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes of it; two tenth deals shall be in one cake. 6. And you shall set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before Hashem. 7. And you shall put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, an offering made by fire to Hashem. 8. Every sabbath he shall set it in order before Hashem continually, being taken from the people of Israel by an everlasting covenant. 9. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in the holy place; for it is most holy to him of the offerings of Hashem made by fire by an everlasting statute. 10. And the son of an Israelite woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the people of Israel; and this son of the Israelite woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp; 11. And the Israelite woman's son blasphemed the name of Hashem, and cursed. And they brought him to Moses; and his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan; 12. And they put him in custody, that the mind of Hashem might be shown to them. 13. And Hashem spoke to Moses, saying, 14. Bring forth him who has cursed outside the camp; and let all who heard him lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. 15. And you shall speak to the people of Israel, saying, Whoever curses his Elohim shall bear his sin. 16. And he who blasphemes the name of Hashem, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him; as well the stranger, as he who is born in the land, when he blasphemes the name of Hashem, shall be put to death. 17. And he who kills any man shall surely be put to death. 18. And he who kills a beast shall make it good; beast for beast. 19. And if a man causes a blemish in his neighbor; as he has done, so shall it be done to him; 20. Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth; as he has caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done back to him. 21. And he who kills a beast, he shall restore it; and he who kills a man, he shall be put to death. 22. You shall have one kind of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country; for I am Hashem your Elohim. 23. And Moses spoke to the people of Israel, that they should bring forth him who had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the people of Israel did as Hashem commanded Moses.
