Chapter 30

14. And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I beg you, of your son's mandrakes. 15. And she said to her, Is it a small matter that you have taken my husband? and would you take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with you to night for your son's mandrakes. 16. And Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, You must come in to me; for I have hired you with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night. 17. And the Eternal One listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob the fifth son. 18. And Leah said, the Eternal One has given me my hire, because I have given my maid to my husband; and she called his name Issachar. 19. And Leah conceived again, and bore Jacob the sixth son. 20. And Leah said, the Eternal One has endowed me with a good dowry; now will my husband live with me, because I have born him six sons; and she called his name Zebulun. 21. And afterwards she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah. 22. And the Eternal One remembered Rachel, and the Eternal One listened to her, and opened her womb. 23. And she conceived, and bore a son; and said, the Eternal One has taken away my reproach; 24. And she called his name Joseph; and said, Hashem shall add to me another son. 25. And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country. 26. Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service which I have done for you. 27. And Laban said to him, I beg you, if I have found favor in your eyes, remain; for I have learned by experience that Hashem has blessed me for your sake.
