Chapter 27

22. And if a man sanctifies to Hashem a field which he has bought, which is not of the fields of his possession; 23. Then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of the estimation, to the year of the jubilee; and he shall give the estimation in that day, as a holy thing to Hashem. 24. In the year of the jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, to him to whom the possession of the land did belong. 25. And all your estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary; twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. 26. Only the firstling of the beasts, which should be Hashem's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it is an ox, or sheep; it is Hashem's. 27. And if it is of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to your estimation, and shall add a fifth part to it; or if it is not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to the estimation. 28.

However no devoted thing, that a man shall devote to Hashem of all that he has, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed; every devoted thing is most holy to Hashem.
